

Have You Registered for Emergency Alerts?

News Release Date

03-22-2016

Columbia Alert Network (C.A.N) is a high speed telephone dialing service used to notify citizens and businesses of important information. Notifications are delivered to targeted geographic areas by a telephone call or electronic messages like text messaging or email.

For more information or to register Click Here!